Hara Setsuko Centenary: The Noriko Trilogy

December 23, 2021 – January 3, 2022

In celebration of the 100th birthday of beloved Japanese actress and icon Hara Setsuko, The Cinematheque and the Nikkei National Museum & Cultural Centre proudly present Ozu Yasujiro's so-called "Noriko Trilogy," a cycle of immortal masterworks.

Satyajit Ray (1921–1992): The Apu Trilogy

December 26, 2021 – January 5, 2022

2021 marked the centennial of the birth of Satyajit Ray, the great Bengali writer-director who introduced Indian cinema to the world. At the pinnacle of Ray's achievement is a trio of films, known as the Apu Trilogy, that are considered masterworks of world cinema.

Werner Herzog: Lessons of Darkness

Until January 4, 2022

The Cinematheque's most substantial Herzog retrospective since 1996 collects many of the German titan's most iconic, enigmatic, and ecstatic feats of narrative and documentary filmmaking.

Cure

December 10–16

Drenched in atmosphere, ambiguity, and an unwavering sense of dread, the international breakthrough of Kurosawa Kiyoshi is a supremely unsettling psychological thriller.

August 32nd on Earth

December 10, 22 & 28

Dune director Denis Villeneuve's striking and gorgeously shot debut feature screens from a 35mm print from The Cinematheque's collection.

Hebrides: The Two Sights + Hazel Isle

December 15, 18 & 20

A pair of Canadian-made films shot on the culturally endangered, possibly supernatural Scottish archipelago of the Hebrides.

France

December 16–22

Pitched somewhere between satire and sincerity, this latest work from the wildly unpredictable French auteur Bruno Dumont will undoubtedly divide audiences.

Miracle in Milan

December 18 – January 5

Vittorio De Sica's follow-up to his triumph Bicycle Thieves is an enchanting neorealist fairy tale that combines slice-of-life poetry with storybook fantasy.

The NeverEnding Story

December 19 (Sunday) 11:00 am

An epic tale of faith against impossible odds, this beloved 1984 fantasy-adventure film continues to inspire awe in audiences young, old, and in between.
